

Reading Before Class

1. Getting started

Reading before class makes the lesson easier. This international example explains how ideas form a paragraph.

A well-known method is to write short notes while reading.

2. A simple plan

- 1. Read the title and predict the topic.
- 2. Underline useful words.
Keep their meanings in a notebook.
- 3. Summarise the article in two sentences.

Study schedule

Activity	Minutes	Purpose
Preview	10	Find the topic
Review	5	Recall key ideas

This sentence follows the table.

Two-column Reading Practice

LEFT-A1 introduces a useful idea.
LEFT-A2 introduces a useful idea.
LEFT-A3 introduces a useful idea.
LEFT-A4 introduces a useful idea.
LEFT-A5 introduces a useful idea.
LEFT-A6 introduces a useful idea.

RIGHT-A1 develops another idea.
RIGHT-A2 develops another idea.
RIGHT-A3 develops another idea.
RIGHT-A4 develops another idea.
RIGHT-A5 develops another idea.
RIGHT-A6 develops another idea.

A full-width bridge comes after both upper columns and before the next pair.

LEFT-B1 starts the next passage.
LEFT-B2 starts the next passage.
LEFT-B3 starts the next passage.
LEFT-B4 starts the next passage.
LEFT-B5 starts the next passage.

RIGHT-B1 closes the discussion.
RIGHT-B2 closes the discussion.
RIGHT-B3 closes the discussion.
RIGHT-B4 closes the discussion.
RIGHT-B5 closes the discussion.

Vocabulary and illustration

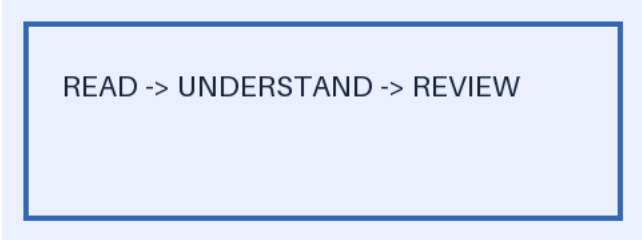

The number below is part of the lesson, not a page number.

2026

A table without border lines

Word	Hits	Note
preview	4	important
context	7	useful
lecture	2	review

The illustration belongs here.

READ -> UNDERSTAND -> REVIEW

This sentence follows the image.